Previous Feedback

"Mike is a fantastic strategist. Combining his clear analytical thinking with experience, he offers novel strategic insights. His creative approach at designing strategy is a superb way to hone actions and priorities for companies seeking to optimise and accelerate their growth. It is a delight to work with him!"

"The doors you have pointed me towards have moved us into a strong place, and we're on a hyper-scaling programme with a major global IT vendor."

"I'm very pleased to recommend Mike based on my experience working with him for some years. Mike has both a holistic strategic perspective as a practical way of doing things. Mike is open and shares both knowledge and experiences."

"The session was ridiculously useful."
